

*No time to cry
 Don't shed another tear
 I am with God
 But in spirit I am here
 I kept the faith
 My spirit is light
 I am at peace now
 I fought the good fight.*

Acknowledgement

The Family would like to express our deepest gratitude and sincere appreciation for the acts of kindness shown during the illness and passing of our loved one. Your cards, phone calls, visits, words of comfort and most of all your prayers are greatly appreciated. Thanks to Audrey Kannady and Tracy Robertson from Kindred's Hospice Care, and a kind, and loving neighbor, Barbara Womack.

May God bless each of you!

Obituary

Ida Elizabeth Tartt was born on August 6, 1925 in Livingston, Alabama to the late Will and Lillian Tartt. She departed this life January 18, 2019.

She moved to Birmingham, Alabama, confessed Christ at an early age, and joined Pilgrim Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend H. W. Perry where she was a faithful member.

Proceeded in death: mother Lillian Tartt, father Will Tartt, five brothers, Dudley, Willie James, John Seal, Reverend Walter Lee, Andrew Hardy Tartt and one Sister, Anna Germany.

In 1945, Ida entered into Holy Matrimony with Mr. George W. Tarver and from this union a daughter (Ida Pearl Tarver) was born.

While a member of New Pilgrim Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Nelson Smith she was a faithful member of the Missionary Ministry until her health failed.

Mrs. Tarver has been deaf since the age of Eight years old but had a full time job working at the University of Alabama in the clinical laboratory for 38 years. While employed at UAB on occasions, she would use her lip reading and sign language skills to assist the patients in the Emergency Room.

Fond memories will be cherished by: Ida Pearl Tarver (daughter), sister Lillie Mae Holmes, Sister-in-law Mildred Tartt, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Precious Memories

Psalm Twenty Three

The 23rd Psalm was a source of great comfort to her during her life. Let's let this Psalm become a source of life and comfort to us regardless of our circumstances and surroundings:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Amen!
