OBITUARY

Mrs. Marjean Jackson Perry, daughter of the late Gussie Jackson, was born in Birmingham, Alabama. She grew up and received her education in the Birmingham Public Schools. She retired from Samford University in housekeeping but continued to be a "Mother to All" she met.

She was married to the late Joseph Perry and to this union no children were born; but neglecting herself, she nurtured and supported the rearing of all her nieces and nephews. Confessing Christ at an early age, she joined New Pilgrim Baptist Church under Rev. W. H. Perry. She departed this life on Christmas morning, December 25, 2012 at Hanover Rehabilitation Facility.

Marjean was preceded in death by two brothers Willie and Charlie, and one sister Irene. She leaves not to mourn but to praise God in pleasant memories, an aunt, Laura Williams of Detroit, MI; two sisters, Nellie S. Taylor (Otis), and Vivian Booker both of Birmingham; a bother, Louis Jackson (Dorothy) of Detroit, MI; a devoted niece and caretaker, Linda T. Vandiver (Ronald); and a great-nephew she affectionately called "my child," Alexander N. Taylor (Boonie) who along with Torston Burroughs, (BJ) a great nephew, provided for her to the very end. In addition she leaves to cherish her memories, a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, and great-great nieces and nephews which she gloried in welcoming into the world.
